To Whom It May Concern:

Paul Odian has been providing massage services to some of the Residents of Long Term Care. His touch as well as his whole person approaches are well received and reflect a genuine interest in the comfort of the ageing. The responses from the residents he has treated has been impressive, they report improved range of movement, pain relief, and demonstrate deeper relaxation and reduced agitation. These residents welcome return visits from Paul. He is professional and respectful while in the facility and is reliable regarding scheduling and changes. He is knowledgeable and demonstrates the ability to be accommodating while working with the residents and open to the spontaneity necessary working with this population.
