

To Whom It May Concern:

Letters of recommendation rarely are able to give a true picture of the person being recommended. Paul Odian, is one of those individuals that will be difficult to bring to full-life on the written page. As a client of Red Marble Mountain Massage I have had the honor of being treated by Paul for the past four years.

Paul is an excellent massage therapist. His excellence is evident not only is his ability to perform the most current and highest quality massage techniques, but in his unwavering commitment to health of mind, body, and spirit to his clients. In addition to his massage practice, Paul continues to study a wide range of cultural techniques and philosophies, which he merges into his daily practices.

He is on the cutting edge of massage therapy – yet uses his hands with a keen intuitiveness - as he was trained by a blind, master technician in his earlier years. Paul's sessions reflect thoughtful consideration of the personal needs of each client. He consistently demonstrates the ability to communicate to his clients precisely how each session will be of benefit - physically and emotionally – and all in a manner that is exceptionally easy to understand.

Among Paul's many strengths is his positive enthusiasm and ability to create sessions that are both therapeutic and relaxing, which infuse high-level learning simultaneously. I know several clients, including myself, who have made such positive gains as a result of Paul's work. Paul has relieved me of excruciating pain in my back and hip after an unsuccessful hip replacement surgery last year. I love stepping into Paul's office (or shall I say 'magical place') and being treated with dignity, respect, and most of all – care.

If Paul ever chooses to move from Chewelah, it would surely be our loss and your gain. I must, without reservation, recommend Paul Odian with the highest rate of excellence.

Respectfully,
